MIGRATION SAFARI

A photograph capturing a herd of wildebeest in the middle of crossing a river. The water is turbulent and brown, with white foam from the animals' splashing. In the center, a wildebeest is seen from behind, its head and curved horns above the water. To its right, another wildebeest is partially submerged, its head and neck visible. In the foreground, the heads and horns of several other wildebeest are visible, some looking towards the camera. The background shows more of the river and some dark rocks.

JOURNEY OVERVIEW

Kenya has long been Africa's most storied safari destination. Known for its legendary wildlife and evocative landscapes, The Masai Mara offers photographer countless opportunities to capture images of the world's greatest natural spectacle, the wildebeest migration from the Serengeti. From August to October, the promise of rain and fresh life-giving grass in the north brings large herds of wildebeest together. At the Mara River they mass together on the banks before finally plunging forward through the raging waters, creating a frenzy as they fight against swift currents and waiting crocodiles.

PHOTOGRAPHIC MIGRATION SAFARI

Day 1

Nairobi

Meet on arrival at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport and transfer to Hemingways Hotel in Nairobi hotel.

Overnight at Hemingways Hotel. Meals on bed & breakfast.

Day 2 & 3

Lower Masai Mara

After breakfast drive for 4-5 hours to reach the Masai Mara National Reserve, descending the Rift Valley north of Nairobi and crossing the flat valley floor before we ascend to the Mara plateau. Your base is the Serena Lodge in the heart of the lower Mara.

We spend the next four days following the herds, capturing the drama as it unfolds throughout the day. Early starts and evening drive back after full days roving the plains with provisions onboard to ensure uninterrupted access to the greatest wildlife spectacle of them all.

Overnight at andBeyond Bateleur Camp. Meals on full board.

Day 4 - 6

Upper Masai Mara

After an early breakfast, drive across the plains with a picnic lunch, photographing and filming en route towards our next base: a tented camp in the upper Mara. Your wilderness rhythm is uninterrupted, the different habitats and species are unveiled as you spend your days driving, watching and capturing on film the dramas as they unfold...

You arrive at the Mara Bush Camp at the end of the afternoon for welcome cold drinks and time to relax around the campfire or maybe a quick dip in the pool before sundowners at the bar.

Overnight Mara Bush Camp. Meals on full board.

Day 7

Depart

After breakfast drive across the savannah on a last excursion, stopping for a picnic lunch at mid-day. You reach Nairobi mid-afternoon with day room booked at Ole Sereni Hotel. Afternoon transfer to Jomo Kenyatta International Airport for your international flight back home.
