Akagera National Park

You will be picked up from your hotel and proceed to Akagera National Park. (Please carry packed breakfast). Upon arrival at the park headquarters, you will have a briefing, then embark on a full day game viewing drive with your assigned park guide. Lunch at one of the picnic sites.

Akagera National park is a home for animals like elephant buffalo, Giraffe, zebra and more than a dozen types of antelope inhabit the park, most commonly the handsome chestnut-coated impala, but also the diminutive oribi and secretive bushbuck, as well as the ungainly tsessebe and the world's largest antelope, the statuesque Cape eland.

At 16:00pm, you will exit the park and have a leisurely drive back to Kigali.
